Important Notice to Advertisers...

The Nebraska Philatelic Blue Book recently issued has proven most unsatisfactory to us owing to the regrettable fact that a considerable number of Lists have been returned as unclaimed, not known, returned to the writer, &c. Publishers of Philatelic Address Books cannot exercise too much care in properly classifying and correctly addressing Stamp Collectors, Stamp Dealers or Philatelic Publishers. Out of about 50 addresses taken from the above address book 3 lists were returned from Cedar Rapids, whilst only 4 addresses for Cedar Rapids, Nebraska, are given.

We will cheerfully mail copies of our lists to active Stamp Collectors, Stamp Dealers or Philatelic Publishers, on receipt of their correct addresses and it is only fair to our advertisers and satisfactory to ourselves to feel assured that we have given them an honest circulation, we do not puff up our circulation but guarantee that the circulation of this list will be 3000 and that No. 3 list will have an honest circulation of 5000.

Yours faithfully,

THE PUBLISHERS.

We would respectfully draw the attention of all recipients of this list to the Advertisements of four well-known publishers of Stamp Catalogue.

Mr. H. L'Estrange Ewens Priced Catalogue of English Postage and Telegraph Stamps, together with the English Specialists Journal are invaluable aids to collectors specializing in these stamps. Both publications $1.32 per year.

Mr. Walter Morley's catalogue of the Stamps of Great Britain is a most excellent publication for any specialist in English Stamps. Price 25c.

Messrs Hopkins Bros priced catalogue of the Stamps of the Obsolete Leeward Isles is well worth 20c to collectors of these most interesting stamps.

Mr. H. F. Ketcheson's Standard Catalogue of Canada Stamps is too well-known to need comment and should be in the hands of all collectors of British North American Stamps. Price paper, 25c. Cloth, 50c.

We will promptly supply any of the above publications on receipt of price.

Yours faithfully,

THE PUBLISHERS.
